THE THOMAS JEFFERSON SOCIETY AND
CLASS OF 1958
55TH REUNION
MAY 13 - MAY 15, 2013
Greetings classmates!

Our 55th Class reunion is set for Monday, May 13 - Wednesday, May 15, 2013. Every year those who return find this to be a very special time, and this year promises to be even better. With a blend of traditional favorites and new events, this year’s reunion offers more reasons than ever to join your old friends and classmates.

This year's schedule is a bit different than reunions in the past. Tours and seminars fill Monday during the day, with an afternoon reception at Carr's Hill with President Teresa A. Sullivan and our 55th Reunion Class Dinner will be held that evening. On Tuesday morning, President Sullivan will address the entire Society. We'll highlight several new speakers, including Richard Guerrant, founder and Director of the Center for Global Health at the University of Virginia School of Medicine, and John Lach, professor of computer engineering. Dr. Guerrant is respected nationally and around the world as an authority on international health and global population issues. Of course, we’ll repeat some of the old favorites, including Larry J. Sabato’s Crystal Ball, David Neuman discussing the Rotunda Restoration, and lunch with our undergraduate schools.

We will enjoy food and drink at our class dinner on Monday and a Society Dinner in Memorial Gym on Tuesday evening. We’ll even have the opportunity to dance the night away to a jazz band on Tuesday night!

There are so many reasons to come back. Reconnect with old friends and enjoy getting to know Cavaliers you haven’t met. Sharpen your intellect at seminars from groundbreaking thinkers and faculty at the University. Come see the beautifully landscaped Grounds and gardens, as well as the entire Central Virginia region, in the bloom of spring.

Our 55th Class Reunion is one you do not want to miss. I look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

N. Thomas Connally (Col ‘58)
Class of 1958 Reunion Chair

P.S. If you live in the Charlottesville area and would like to attend the Reunion but transportation is a problem, please call Terry Deane at the Alumni Association at 434-243-9011 to arrange for special transportation.

For those interested and able, the tour will include special access to the second-floor Dome Room. Afterward, we will proceed down the road to Michie Tavern, where we will tour the oldest sections of the tavern—where many of our Founding Fathers dined and socialized—and enjoy a lunch of traditional Southern fare.
Note: Participation is limited to the first 60 registrants. This event requires an additional fee of $60 per person. This fee covers travel, lunch at Michie Tavern and both tour expenses. Due to extensive walking and stairs at both Monticello and Michie Tavern, this event is not recommended for those with limited mobility.
